Words from a Windsor Parent:

"I was a bit too nervous to attend a PAC meeting since I felt like I knew nothing about how the school worked or how I could help. Luckily, I happened to meet a PAC member who invited me to a meeting - I'm so glad I went! Everyone was so welcoming. It felt really good to connect with other parents since I am rarely able to come to drop off/pick ups at the school. I've learned more about what's going on at the school, and even though I could only help in small ways at certain times, my contributions were really valued by the PAC members."
